Thoughts to Life one of the earlier ones, he intimates that he is already old:- "My glass shall not persuade me I am old, So long as youth and thou are of one date;" but in the preceding sonnets he has repeatedly admonished his young friend that the summer of youth is fast flying, and has urged this as a reason why he should marry; "for," he says in substance, "you will soon be old, as I am.
